Presents
Misdemeanor Appeals Rule 8.144

Rule 8.144

California Rules of Court

- 8.144 does not apply when a single reporter reported a trial
- 8.144 does not apply if multiple reporters reported only pretrial, verdict, or post-verdict proceedings
- Prepare a daily index for each day that has the following proceedings: witnesses, exhibits, and/or sealed proceedings
- Daily index must include date of proceedings and volume number at the top
- Daily index must include an alphabetical and chronological listing of witnesses, where exhibits were marked for identification, admitted, or refused, and a listing of any sealed proceedings
- Prepare a "No/None" index if there are no witnesses, exhibits, or sealed proceedings, listing all dates and volume numbers of proceedings on appeal at the top
- Only one "No/None" index per appeal and only the primary prepares
- Multiple days may be bound in one volume, but each volume must not exceed 300 sheets nor be less than 25 pages
- Each volume's title page must indicate the date or dates of proceedings contained in the volume, volume number, exact pagination, and the name of each reporter who has pages included in the volume
- Volume 1 contains title page, indices, and certificates only and is bound separately. Volume 1 can be less than 25 pages
